ORAL ORDER

1. This petition, under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, has been filed with the following prayers:

"A) issue an appropriate writ, order or direction to the respondent to allow the petitioner to submit the requisite creamy layer certificate for the advertisement given by the respondent for the post of Assistant Conservator of Forest, Class-II/Range Forest Officer, Class-II;

B) Issue appropriate writ, order or direction to the respondent to allow the petitioner to appear in the main written examination which is to be held between 19/02/2011 to 03/03/2011 for the post of Assistant Conservator of Forest, Class-II/Range Forest Officer, Class-II;

C) Pending admission and/or final disposal of this petition, the respondent be directed to allow the petitioner to appear in the main written examination which is to be held between 19/02/2011 to 03/03/2011 for the post of Assistant Conservator of Forest, Class-II/Range Forest Officer, Class-II;

D) pending admission and/or final disposal of this petition, further procedure with respect to the advertisement by the GPSC for the post of Assistant Conservator of Forest, Class-II/Range Forest Officer, Class-II be stayed"

2. Mr. Rushabh R. Shah, learned advocate for the petitioner, states that the interest of justice would be served if the respondent-Gujarat Public Service Commission is directed to consider and decide the representation dated 02.02.2011 made by the petitioner expeditiously and before the commencement of the final examination.

3. Upon the above submission being made by the learned advocate for the petitioner, the following order is passed.

4. The respondent-Gujarat Public Service Commission is directed to consider and decide the representation dated 02.02.2011 (Annexure-G) made by the petitioner on or before 15.02.2011.

5. It is clarified that while passing this order the court has not entered into the merits of the matter.

6. The petition is disposed of accordingly. Direct service is permitted.
