The charge sheet is filed under section 124 of the Bombay Police Act.
2. It is common ground that the Investigating Officer has not obtained the sanction from the Magistrate for investigation Shri Bhonsale, learned Counsel appearing in support of this petition strongly relied upon my judgment in Avinash Mukhedkar v. State of Maharashtra, . In that matter I have taken a view that in connection with non-cognizable offences punishable under section 124 of the Bombay Police Act, no investigation could be carried out without obtaining the sanction from the Magistrate. In view of the judgment in Avinash's case, I have no other option but to uphold the contention of Shri Bhonsale and quash the proceedings pending before the trial Magistrate. The petition must accordingly succeed.
