Decision No. 4934/IC (A)/200

F.No. CIC/MA/C/2009/000309

Dated 31.12.2009

Name of the Appellant:

Sh. Sanjiv Kumar

Name of the Public Authority :

Railway Recruitment Board

Facts

: 1

1. The appellant has asked for certain information in the form of various queries, which relate to a recruitment process. Through his RTI application, he has sought to know the action taken on a representation submitted by him for redressal of his grievances regarding his employment. He has alleged that the desired information has not been furnished to him.

Decision:

2. An information seeker should ask for information as per Section 2(f) and 2(j) of the Act. The appellant is accordingly advised.

3. The PIO is directed to furnish the information on the basis of available records within 15 working days from the date of issue of this decision. The appellant should re-submit a copy of his RTI application to the concerned PIO, for ready reference.

4. There are no provisions in the Act for redressal of grievances relating to service matters. This complaint is therefore considered unnecessary and is thus disposed of.
