ORAL

ORDER

Learned advocates for both the parties submit that this is a matrimonial matter and it is amicably settled between the parties by way of reunion.

The respondent no.3-complainant is present in the Court. She is identified by learned advocate Mr.Hardik Pandit. Learned advocate Mr.Pandit submits that he will file his vakalatnama for respondent no.3-original complainant during the course of the day. This Court ascertained from the complainant about the fact to which she stated that the reunion took place between herself and the applicant and now she is residing with her husband and other family member and she has no grievance against the applicant herein.

Learned advocate for the applicant placed reliance on the following decision:

1. B.S.Joshi and others V/s State of Haryana and Another, (2003)4 SCC 675.

Considering the judgment referred hereinabove and the facts as well as submissions made by the learned advocates for the respective parties, this application is allowed. The complaint being I-C.R.No.74 of 2010 registered with Gadh City Police Station, Banaskantha is hereby quashed and set aside.

Direct service is permitted.
