JAI LAL RAI

Versus

THE STATE OF BIHAR & ORS

-----

21. 14.07.2010 List this case on 28.7.2010 at the top of the list, as prayed for by Mr. Rajendra Prasad Singh, learned senior counsel for the petitioner.

In the meantime, counsel for the State must file supplementary counter affidavit in the second case failing which the Director, Primary Education and District Superintendent of Education, Vaishali shall remain personally present before this Court.

Mr. Rajendra Prasad Singh, learned senior counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioners are ready to produce their original certificate/document about which it is being said that they are forged or illegal.

This Court would make it clear that if the petitioners without prejudice to their right being agitated in the criminal case/departamental proceeding will have no objection to determination of the fact with regard to the alleged illegality/forgery in their certificate/document, this Court would decide the matter herein and that would be end of the matter so far it relates to impugned order demoting them to the original post.
