ORAL ORDER

1. The present application under Section 482 of the Criminal Procedure Code has been preferred by the applicants-original accused to quash the impugned Complaint/FIR, being Criminal Case No. 166/2003, registered with Nadiad Police Station dated 20/09/2003.
2. Today, when the present application is taken up for further hearing, it is reported by the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties that during pendency of the present application, the Investigating Officer had completed the investigation and had already filed 'C; Summary report before the learned Magistrate and, therefore, now the proceedings are pending before the learned Magistrate in view of the 'C' Summary report submitted by the Investigating Officer, and, therefore, it is for the learned Magistrate to consider the same in accordance with law.
3. It is reported by Shri Gupta, learned advocate appearing on behalf of respondent no. 2-original complainant that he has no objection if the 'C' Summary report submitted by the Investigating Officer is accepted. The aforesaid shall be considered by the learned Magistrate while considering whether to accept the 'C' Summary report submitted by the Investigating Officer or not. The same shall be considered by the learned Magistrate in accordance with law on its own merits.
4. In view of the above, the present application is disposed of. Ad-interim relief granted earlier stands vacated forthwith. Rule is discharged.
