ORAL

ORDER

Leave to amend.

The present application has been filed by the applicant for the prayer seeking modification of the condition imposed while releasing the applicant as per the order passed in Criminal Misc. Application No. 9123 of 2009 dated 26.8.2009 on the ground that he desires to visit Africa for his business purpose. In the past he could not go though permission was granted due to health of the mother.

Learned AGP Mr. Mengdey has verified that he has not travelled abroad though permission was granted earlier.

In the circumstances, having regard to the ground mentioned, the present application deserves to be allowed.

The applicant shall file an undertaking before this court disclosing his programme, contact no. as well as the details of his stay abroad and itinerary before the passport is released. He shall file the undertaking and thereafter the trial court is directed to release the passport forthwith to enable him to take appropriate steps for his visit abroad. The applicant shall surrender the passport on his return from abroad on or before 1.12.2010.

The application accordingly stands allowed partly. Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent.
