Dr. S. D. Garg vs Madhu Honda Commissioner on 15 February, 2011

1

Con.C. 1463 of 2011

S.D. Garg

Madhu Honda

15.2.2011

Shri Vijay Shukla, Counsel for the applicant.

Shri Kamlesh Dwivedi, Counsel for the respondent.

This application is filed for initiating contempt proceedings against the respondents alleging non-compliance of the order dated 6.9.2010 in W.P.822/2010. By the aforesaid order this Court directed thus :-

" In view of submissions made by learned counsel for the parties, the instant writ appeal is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2 to consider and decide the representation submitted by the appellant, contained in Annexure P/12 within a period of two weeks from the date of presentation of certified copy of the order passed by this Court.

With the aforesaid directions, the writ appeal stands disposed of."

Learned counsel appearing for the respondents submitted that the order has been complied with and the representation of petitioner was duly considered by the respondent and it was rejected vide order dated 12.2.2011. A copy of the order has been supplied to Shri Shukla.

Learned counsel for the petitioner at this stage submitted that the petitioner is ready to join at Jabalpur but he has not been relieved from Katni. Apart from this, the claim of the applicant for salary is also with the department and may be directed to consider the aforesaid claim.

From the perusal of the order dated 6.9.2010, we find that only directions were issued to the State to consider and decide the representation of the applicant, which has been considered and decided vide order dated 12.2.2011. So far as the relieving of the applicant from Katni is concerned, the
