

Patna High Court - Orders

Kumari Sweta vs The State Of Bihar & Ors. on 9 November, 2011

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Miscellaneous Jurisdiction Case No.4742 of 2010

Kumari Sweta

Versus

The State Of Bihar & Ors.

2. 09.11.2011 In this contempt application, no show cause has been filed as yet. Learned counsel appearing for the opposite parties prays for four weeks time.

Four weeks time is granted to file show cause putting on record the documents with regard to the compliance of the orders of this Court. In case the order of this Court has not been complied with till the filing of the contempt application, the deponent of the show cause shall also explain the reasons for the delay. He shall also show cause as to why cost of this litigation may not be realized from the pocket of the concerned authority who may be found responsible for non-compliance of the order of this Court in time.

Put up this case after four weeks.

It is made clear that, if it is found that the petitioner has filed frivolous contempt application, and/or contempt is made out in the case, this Court may consider awarding cost against the petitioner also for filing frivolous application in this Court.

BT

(J. N. Singh, J.)